

GERMAN/EU SPOUSE

Last Update: May 2018

This information leaflet has been generated by the German Missions in South Africa. This leaflet stipulates the legal requirements of a Schengen Visa Category C application. Applicants are requested to read it carefully and follow the regulations as stated below – see I. until IV.

- The processing time for a Visa application is 15 consecutive days according to the Schengen Visa Codex
- Applications can only be processed if all required documents have been submitted
- Visa applications may be submitted up to 3 months prior to departure and must be submitted latest 15 days before departure

Intergate Visalink manages Visa Application Centres for the German missions in South Africa, where you should submit your completed application form, supporting documents and biometric data. Your visa application will be processed and decided by the German Missions in South Africa. Intergate Visalink does not play any part in or influence the outcome of your application process. Incomplete applications will be returned to the applicant!

II. INFORMATION FOR THE APPLICANT

- The processing time for Visa applications takes 15 days according to the Schengen Visa Codex. The German missions and Intergate are committed to keep the processing time to a minimum.
- All documents must be submitted in German or English language
- Only complete applications can be accepted; Non-submission of necessary documentation may lead to a refusal
- During the processing period the passport has to remain with the German missions. Passports can only be withdrawn if a written request, signed by the applicant, is received. Consequently the application will be cancelled and the passport will be available for collection within 2 working days from Intergate.
- False or falsified documents will lead to refusal of visa and/ or further consequences
- The German missions reserve the right to ask for further supporting documents / information
- Visa extensions within Germany are generally not possible
- Applicants may not apply for permanent residence in Germany while on this Visa
- The German Mission may shorten the validity of the Visa without prior consultation
- in case of a one-year or multiple year visa being issued, the period of stay in a Schengen may not exceed 90 days within 180 days, this period of stay beginning with the first day of entry into the Schengen state.
- You may track your application on the website www.visa-germany.co.za or contact the Call Center at +27 (0) 861 00 22 45
- Have you already had your fingerprints taken at an earlier application for a C-Schengenvisa ? If so, it may not be necessary for you to apply in person. However, in case the biometric capturing of your fingerprints failed or has been compromised due to a technical problem and cannot be used you must have your fingerprints taken again. In such case, you will be contacted by the mission or by "Intergate" respectively
